Your Host

Harun Khan is an Academic FY2 Doctor in West Midlands. Growing up in Bordesley Green, Birmingham, he attended Bordesley Green Primary, then a grammar school and eventually gained place at Imperial College London- graduating with an MBBS BSc (1st Class Hons) in Summer 2017.

Harun has ample experience supporting students in their pursuit to applying for higher education. As well as consulting on a 1-1 basis (pro-bono), he has acted as a regional organizer of higher education events in Greater London from 2014. He was also student representative of Imperial College's undergraduate medicine (A100) interview panel three times (2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16) and has regularly supported teaching activities at Imperial - being the first undergraduate student to teach a lecture on an intercalated BSc course (Global Health) in 2015-2016.
